Wolmanized® Piling with Marine Pile Guard Protection

A legacy of superior products and service

In 1938, Robbins Manufacturing Company was established as a saw mill operation. A decade later, Robbins began treating wood products with CCA preservatives. Today, Robbins provides Wolmanized® Heavy Duty™ wood to the agricultural, marine, and utility industries.

With more than one million cubic feet of poles and pilings and over one million fence posts distributed annually to retail and independent dealers throughout Florida and the Southeast, Robbins Manufacturing is the largest production facility in Florida.

We are innovative and responsive with professional associates cross-trained in every aspect of the business allowing us to respond promptly and efficiently. We continue to be proud stewards of the Robbins' legacy in the wood products industry. We hold true to the same ideals espoused by company founder Bruce Robbins, Sr.: "Never cut quality".

ROBBINS™
Trusted Name. Trusted Brand.

The Robbins Advantage

Robbins Manufacturing specializes in Wolmanized® CCA Heavy Duty™ poles, piles, timbers, posts, or plywood that is pressure treated with Wolmanac® CCA preservative to provide protection from termites and fungal decay.

Wolmanized® Heavy Duty™ wood by Robbins is strong, resilient, versatile and economical. It is easy to work with and repair and can be modified with common tools. Although CCA-treated wood cannot be used for non-industrial applications, trusted Wolmanized® Heavy Duty™ wood is still permitted and preferred for poles, piles, and posts used as structural members on farms, as well as plywood and glue-laminated timbers under (AWPA Standards under Use Categories UC 4A, 4B, AND 4C).

For 85 years, CCA-treated wood has been specified in a wide variety of applications, which now include utility poles, marine piling, and agricultural fence posts. When used as recommended, CCA-treated wood is harmless to people, plants, and animals. Its use provides environmental benefits as well as decades of service.

Marine Pile Guard from Robbins

Polyurea wood coatings provide a superior protective barrier for Wolmanized® CCA Heavy Duty™ piling from Robbins, making it abrasion, impact and moisture resistant. Coating polyurethane on wood resembles traditional vinyl or ABS plastic with a textured appearance that forms a slip-resistant and waterproof barrier.

- Long Lasting
- User Friendly
- Stronger than Alternatives
- Cost Effective
- Strength and Durability of CCA Treated Wood
- Added Benefits of Polyurea Protective Coating

Benefits of polyurea coating on treated marine piling

- Treated for marine use with trusted, proven Wolmanac® CCA
- Retention of 2.50 pcf
- Dried after treatment to allow for solid adhesion and stabilize wood to prevent further cracking and splitting
- Encapsulated with polyurea coating to a thickness of approximately 60 mils to prevent leaching of preservatives thus creating environmentally friendly treated wood piling
- Prolonged useful life by adding additional encapsulated protection from invasive marine organisms
- Protected against water migration through treated wood piling, preventing fuzzy wood piling (caused by tracheid separation) and further cracking and splitting
- Easily drilled and cut
- Prepped to manage simple imperfections that might disturb the coating and repaired with ease if coating is fractured due to cutting (repair kits are available to match the coating color)
